

Roberta Lamb

Roberta's songs range from humorous with a groove to impassioned ballads that touch close to the bone. No matter the song, she brings it straight to the heart with her clear, strong voice and her magnetic stage presence. Her fans describe her music as sophisticated, witty, sometimes humorous, sometimes bittersweet - and always beautifully performed.

A singer songwriter with unique influences, Roberta Lamb draws on her classical vocal training, her love of blues and pop, and her appreciation for a timeless tune to entertain at a variety of venues. A native Texan, she's based out of Rhode Island, and she can be found performing gigs at listening rooms, cafes, folk festivals, farmers markets and wherever artists share their voices across the US and now, since Covid-19, in Israel, the UK and Germany, so far.

Roberta's music, including her album, Not Your Mama's Blues, is streamed on Spotify, Apple Music, Amazon Music and available for purchase at www.robotalamb.bandcamp.com.

Contact:

Roberta@robotalamb.com

www.robotalamb.com